Local History

Join us for a fun session with the Pickering Public Library, and hear exciting stories about Pickering's past.

The Library's local history tells the story of Pickering from its earliest people to today's growing City.

You will also learn about other services and events that the Library has to offer.

Call 905.420.4660 ext. 2080 or email arose@pickering.ca to register.

Session is FREE however space is limited so call today to reserve your spot.
